

By unanimous consent, the title was amended so as to read: "A resolution urging the Congress and the President to work to fully fund the Federal Government's responsibility under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act."

A motion to reconsider the votes whereby the rules were suspended and said resolution, as amended, was agreed to and the title was amended was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

§58.19 AMERICA'S SCHOOLS HIGH-QUALITY, PROVEN PROGRAMS AND PRACTICES

Mr. RIGGS moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 401); as amended:

Whereas high student achievement and academic advancement are vitally important to our Nation's schools and the future success of America's workforce;

Whereas some pupils proceed through school without having mastered the knowledge and skills required of them, and graduate from high school ill-equipped to handle college-level work or obtain an entry-level job;

Whereas "social promotion", the practice of moving pupils from one grade to the next regardless of whether they have the knowledge and skills necessary for the next level, is one reason for a pupil's inadequate academic achievement levels;

Whereas research has shown that retention, the customary alternative policy to social promotion, is also an inadequate response to the problem in that pupils are usually presented with the same instructional practices and materials that were ineffective the first time around;

Whereas to help underachieving students learn, it is essential that policies and programs address the underlying causes of failure and rectify the problems through various proven instruction practices;

Whereas high-quality teacher training and education, and other proven practices will provide our teachers with the tools necessary to educate our Nation's children and work toward high academic achievement by students;

Whereas social promotion policies already have been abolished in Louisiana, Arkansas, Florida, New Mexico, North Carolina, South Carolina, West Virginia, and in Chicago, Illinois, Portsmouth, Virginia, Long Beach, California, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin; and

Whereas the abolishment of social promotion policies have been proposed in California, Michigan, Wisconsin, Delaware, Texas, Oklahoma, New York, Washington, D.C., and in Boston, Massachusetts, and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania: Now, therefore, be it Resolved,

That it is the sense of the House of Representatives that—

(1) ending social promotion should be addressed in America through a coordinated effort by government officials, teachers, and parents committed to high academic achievement of students;

(2) State Education Agencies and local educational agencies that receive Federal funds should make every effort to address and end social promotion;

(3) the problems associated with social promotion can be resolved effectively through a commitment to provide high-quality training and education for our teachers, and the use of other proven practices; and

(4) States should adopt high, rigorous standards and standards-based assessments aimed at requiring academic accountability with the specific aim of ending social promotion and raising student achievement.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SHIMKUS, recognized Mr. RIGGS and Mr. MARTINEZ, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said resolution, as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SHIMKUS, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

Mr. RIGGS demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SHIMKUS, pursuant to clause 5, rule I, announced that further proceedings on the motion were postponed.
